

Neptune comes home

On the 4th. April, 2011 Neptune dipped into the watery sign of Pisces for the first time in nearly 150 years. After a six-month return to Aquarius from August 2011 to January 2012, it will be back for a thirteen-year stay in its home sign.

This workshop with Kris Lee is a mix of illustrated lecture and experiential exercises helping us to understand Neptune's illusory, dissolving, spiritual and limitlessly creative qualities.

The day includes :

- ♆ the meaningful story of the planet's discovery
- ♆ Neptune through the zodiac - a historical perspective - learning from the last time Neptune was in Pisces
- ♆ Global changes we can expect as it returns to the sign it's associated with
- ♆ Strategies for personal Neptune transits of planets and houses
- ♆ Neptune aspects to other planets in your birth chart

Join Kris for a day dedicated to the understanding of the Neptune archetype on a global and personal level
